

Sales & rent in just one click

MYHOUSEPRICE.COM TEAMS UP WITH CITYLETS.CO.UK

Regulated Surveyors

The demands on residential valuers have never been greater and we recognise that Scottish professionals must have the most up-to-date sales and rental information at their fingertips.

Myhouseprice has now teamed up with Citylets to bring together the most comprehensive Scottish sales and rental data in one place.

We know that your valuations need to be supported by at least three great sales and increasingly three great rentals. This information is now available to you at Myhouseprice/pro. We have applied our industry leading search functions to Citylets unrivalled Scottish rental database. The result is that you can now instantly gather your rental evidence alongside your sales search!

Investors, Property Analysts and Lenders

Understanding the relationship between the value of a property and its rental yield is essential for surveyors, investors and lenders – what could be simpler than having the sales and rental information available in a single search!

- Instant access to 2 million sales records and over 200,000 Scottish rentals
- Fast searches with great results
- Save time
- Provide bullet proof valuations
- All the data you need to calculate rental yields and average rentals
